

IOWA ELECTION UPSETS PROGRAM

Harding's Plans for Ship Subsidy May Hit
a Shoal

WEST IS OPPOSING

Farmers in Wheat States Unfavorable to Giving the Ship-Owners "Fund"

By GEORGE R. HOLMES,
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent.
WASHINGTON, June 8.—Dispite the scrupulous care exercised by President Harding and his administration advisers in keeping strictly "hands off" Iowa primary fight, the result in that warm contest today threatened to have an early effect in creating additional complications for the administration's legislative program, particularly the ship subsidy bill, which President Harding has declared the present congress "must pass." Col. Smith W. Brookhart, ultra-progressive who won the senatorial nomination from a field of six candidates, campaigned on a vigorous platform, the chief plank Each-Cummins railroad act and its guaranty provisions which amount to a virtual subsidy. Clifford Thorne, anti-railroad attorney, who was second in the Iowa contest, also opposed the Each-Cummins act and their combined strength approximated roughly 75 per cent of the Iowa republican sentiment.
The mid-western group of senators who have already announced their opposition to the ship subsidy plan were freely interpreting this register of opposition as another evidence of the great grain and hog-producing sections of the country as opposed to the subsidy legislation.
One Kansan termed it "a mandate which we cannot ignore." The mid-westerners are torn with a desire to vote as they believe their districts want them to vote and yet they hesitate deliberately to throw down legislation upon which the president, as titular head of the party has laid such stress upon.
A canvass of the leaders today disclosed that serious doubt ensues in their minds as to whether they can muster sufficient votes to pass the measure, despite President Harding's insistence that it be passed.
The democrats, save for a few from coast districts will oppose the ship subsidy as a party measure.

ADKISON IN COUNTY RACE

Former Police Commissioner Files for County Commissioner.
Rumors which have been rampant in political circles since the city election were proven yesterday when J. M. Adkison filed as a candidate for the republican nomination for county commissioner from district No. 2. Adkison was a fire and police head under the Evans administration and he was defeated for re-election by Harry Kiskaddon, the successful democratic candidate.
Soon after the city election he was rumored that Adkison would be a candidate for the county commissioner.
As Adkison threw his hat into the ring, E. E. Short, former city treasurer, who had entered the day previous for the same office withdrew his name. He gave no reason for quitting. Short was also a candidate for city commissioner in the last city election and he, too, tasted of the cup of defeat. Other filings yesterday were Art Stanton, Sand Springs, republican for justice of the peace; Ed. W. Hedgecock, Dawson, democrat for county commissioner and O. A. P. McDowell, republican for county assessor.
Colored entries yesterday for justice of the peace were: William Cherry, republican; J. S. Kirby, republican; S. M. Howard, republican; T. D. Jackson, republican and J. W. Dillard, democrat. All of the men reside in the Dawson district.

Aged Alpine Guide Is Man of Mystery In McCormick Case

NEW YORK, June 8.—Saverio Dati, a 70-year-old Alpine guide, arrived today from Europe on the Fellow passengers spread the rumor that he was bringing here

Swiss riding master engaged to Miss Mathilde McCormick of Chicago. Mr. Rockefeller's granddaughter.
Asked frankly if this was his mission, the visitor replied:
"Maybe the next time I come I will tell you the purpose of my visit here."
Dati informed immigration officials that he was to be a guest of Mrs. M. Hartley Dodge of Fifth avenue. She is a relative of the Rockefellers.

Special to The World.
CLAREMORE, June 8.—At a county-wide meeting held here to-all parts of Rogers county, an organ-the voters of Rogers county at the primary election in August a bond issue of $500,000 for the purpose of the Frisco, another the Missouri Pacific and a third from the Tulsa county line on the west to the Mayes
